

CREATING LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS FOR WELLBEING.

DATE: 19 June 2019

VENUE: QUT, Kelvin Grove Campus
Education Precinct (E Block)
Level 5. Function Room.

SCHEDULE:

Symposium | 2:30 – 4:15pm
Tours of Education Precinct | 4:15 - 5:00pm
Drinks & Refreshments | 5:00 - 6:00pm

COST:

Members | $70
Non-members | $85
QUT Staff rate available

CLICK HERE TO BOOK

SYMPOSIUM SPEAKERS & TOPICS

PROGRAM:

- 1. Scaffolding & Frameworks for Educational Design:
Dr Janet Buchan
- 2. Designing School Spaces for Wellbeing & Learning
 - Conceptualising wellbeing for school design:
Professor Jill Franz
 - School design and pedagogic possibilities:
Dr Jill Willis
 - Participatory designing:
Adjunct Associate Professor Hilary Hughes
- 3. Panel Discussion – Learning Environments and Wellbeing. Views from different perspectives:
 - Kathryn Bekavac – Senior Education Officer – Student Wellbeing, Brisbane Catholic Education
 - Dr Jill Willis – Senior Lecturer, QUT
 - Ray Giarola – Director Giarola Architects

THE PRESENTERS

Janet Buchan

Janet Buchan is the Director of CiTEL at Lourdes Hill College in Brisbane and has a Visiting Fellow appointment with QUT's School of Teacher Education & Leadership. Janet's research interests include learning spaces, distributed learning environments, learning technology and professional learning.

Hilary Hughes

Jill Willis

Jill Franz

Hilary Hughes, Jill Willis and Jill Franz and (Queensland University of Technology) enjoy a strong research partnership which draws upon their varied disciplinary expertise and shared commitment to designing for wellbeing. They have collaborated in several research projects including: the current ARC Linkage 'Innovative procurement theories to optimise education per cost of school'; the DET-funded 'High School Spaces and Student Transitioning: Designing for Student Wellbeing'; and their recently co-edited book 'Designing school spaces for student wellbeing and learning' (Springer, 2019).

Sponsor

Interface®

EXPERIENCE
'THE SPHERE'
AND QUT'S
NEW FACULTY
OF EDUCATION
PRECINCT

